

CHAPTER 15. EXTRATERRITORIAL JURISDICTION

Sec. 15-1. - Extraterritorial jurisdiction

- (a) The governing body did, on October 13, 1987, adopt an Extraterritorial Jurisdiction Ordinance pursuant to article 19, chapter 160A of the North Carolina General Statutes. Said ordinance does describe an area within which the town will exercise the powers granted by article 19, chapter 160A of the North Carolina General Statutes. Said ordinance included a map to be recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county and said map is recorded in Ordinance File # 1, page 170.
- (b) Pursuant to article 19, chapter 160A of the North Carolina General Statutes, the governing body of the town did, on December 1, 1992, hold a public hearing on the matter of extending the extraterritorial jurisdiction and did adopt an ordinance extending such jurisdiction not more than one mile beyond the town limits, within which area the powers granted by article 19, chapter 19, chapter 160A of the North Carolina General Statutes will be exercised by the town. Those powers shall include but not be limited to the following:
 - (1) State building codes.
 - (2) Zoning ordinance of the town, appendix A.
 - (3) Subdivision regulations.
 - (4) Building Regulations
- (c) Pursuant to NCGS ch. 160A, Article 19, and public hearing duly held on January 5, 2006, and subject to approval of the Onslow County Board of Commissioners duly given, the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the Town is hereby extended to the areas duly marked and delineated on the map attached hereto, which is marked "Attachment 1" and which is hereby incorporated herein by reference, for all purposes permitted pursuant to said Article 19, including without limitation, Building Inspections, Zoning and Subdivision Regulation. (May 9, 2006; County approval/effective date, July 24, 2006)
